Preferred Citation:	Item Description; Sheet number, Folder number; Jefferson County Abstract Company Map Collection, 1867-1949; Series #143; Jefferson County Records Management & Archives, Golden, Colorado
Provenance:	Mr. and Mrs. F.A. (Heinie) Foss, donated the collection of maps to Jefferson County in 1992. The Foss's, in care of the Mesa Meadows Land Company, had recently purchased the Golden Mercantile and Coors Buildings in Golden. These maps were found as is in the basement of the Coors Building, which used to house the Jefferson County Abstract Co.

Scope and Content Note

The collection of maps contains 530 maps on 302 sheets. The majority of the maps are tracings of subdivision plats recorded among the official records of the Jefferson County Clerk and Recorder's Office, although also included are surveys by former county surveyors, maps showing road, railroad, or ditch rights of way, and a few miscellaneous maps made by private engineers or surveyors. The maps date from 1867 to 1949 and were compiled and/or collected by the former Jefferson County Abstract Company of Golden, Colorado. Rehoused from the folders they were originally found in to map boxes, but maintaining original order.
