CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Welcome to the Boettcher Mansion, owned and managed by the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners.

This grand estate was built in 1917 as the summer home and hunting lodge of Charles Boettcher, one of Colorado's most prestigious entrepreneurs. Donated by Charline Breeden, Charles Boettcher's granddaughter, the Mansion opened in 1975 and is on the National Register of Historic Places.

It offers a magnificent setting on 110 acres of pine forest at 7500 feet, with views of the Continental Divide and the Denver panorama. Over 35,000 people visit each year, so we ask that you adhere closely to the following policies. They allow you the best use and enjoyment of the Mansion, while preserving it for the public in years to come.

There are five rooms and a gazebo that are available for conferences at the Boettcher Mansion.

Event times may be scheduled from 8am to 4pm Monday through Friday, and 5pm to 10pm Monday through Thursday evenings. Weekend conferences may be available depending on our schedule.
