BUILDING STRONGER COMMUNITIES - -

District Attorney Peter Weir is committed to building stronger communities by providing resources to help protect all its citizens from becoming victims of crime. Educational programs addressing relevant issues affecting our community are presented by District Attorney staff.

Working together, the District Attorney and community members can address crime concerns and develop strategies to prevent crime in the First Judicial District. Presentations are available for school groups, non-profit organizations, business or parent associations, seniors' groups, and other community-based organizations.
