Ordinance: General Assistance

A. Authority

1. The Jefferson County Department of Human Services shall be charged with the responsibility of implementing and administering General Assistance in Jefferson County.
2. The Director of Human Services shall be charged with the responsibility to establish the Eligibility Guidelines and to change such Eligibility Guidelines as necessary to meet the purpose of the program. The Eligibility Guidelines may be obtained from the Office of the Director of Human Services.

B. Benefits

1. Eligibility for any and all applicants for General Assistance is always dependent upon Jefferson County having appropriated and available General Assistance funds. General Assistance applicants may apply for:
 - a. Rent
 - b. Utilities, including heat, electricity and water
 - c. Transportation costs
 - d. Grocery vouchers
 - e. Emergency medical care
 - f. Burial Benefits
 - g. Filing Fees and Court Costs

2. Special Circumstances

- a. Under special circumstances, or in the case of an emergency where time restrictions will not permit handling the situation under normal procedures, and the applicant otherwise appears eligible, the Director or his/her designee, may grant additional benefits necessary to alleviate an acute condition which jeopardizes the health and safety of the applicant or his/her immediate family.
- b. The Director, or his/her designee, may also authorize expenditure of General Assistance funds for emergency items that may be reimbursed at a later date from other assistance funds, such as Old Age Pension, Aid to Needy Disabled, Colorado Works, etc.
