Jefferson County elections office is moving

(Golden) – The Elections Division of the Jefferson County Clerk and Recorder will be moving to a new location beginning Feb. 27, 2012. The office will move from its current location on the second floor of the Administration and Courts Building to the Laramie Building on the Jefferson County government campus in Golden. The new Elections Division address is 3500 Illinois Street, Suite 1100, Golden 80401.

“This move will allow us to consolidate and improve our processes by having all election-related activities under the same roof,” said County Clerk and Recorder Pam Anderson. “The Elections Warehouse, Mail Ballot Processing Center and Ballot Counting Room are already located in the Laramie Building, so it will be nice to have our elections administrative staff headquartered there as well,” she added.

The Elections Division will be closed on Friday, Feb. 24 to accommodate the move and will re-open at its new location on Monday, Feb. 27. The Motor Vehicle, Recording and Clerk to the Board offices of the Clerk and Recorder will remain in the Administration and Courts Building.
