Jeffco voters can track their ballot online

(Golden) - Voters can track the status of their ballot throughout the November 2008 election process on the Jefferson County Clerk and Recorder's Office Web site.

Visit www.votejeffco.com, and select the "Look Up my Voter Registration" link to look-up voter information by entering a date of birth and residence address. This will take voters to a page where they can view their voter registration information and see the date their ballot has been mailed, the date it was returned and the date the ballot was processed.

"It continues to be our hope that this feature allowing voters to check the status of their ballots will increase voter participation and confidence in the election process," said County Clerk and Recorder Pam Anderson.

To date, over 200,000 Jefferson County voters have applied for a mail-in ballot for the November election.

The website also features information such as sample ballots, a listing of mail-in ballot drop-off locations throughout the county, polling place maps for voters choosing to vote at the polls and election results, posted after 7:00 p.m. on Election Night, November 4, 2008.

All mail-in ballots must be in the possession of the Clerk and Recorder's Office no later than 7:00 p.m. on November 4, 2008.
