Voter registration deadline for the Primary Election is Monday

(Golden) - The deadline to register to vote in the 2010 Primary Election is Monday, July 12, 2010.

Election Day is Tuesday, August 10, 2010.

The 2010 Primary Election will be conducted as an all mail ballot election in Jefferson County. Ballots will be mailed to all eligible Jeffco voters affiliated with either the Democratic, Republican or Libertarian parties beginning on July 19, 2010. Voters registering after July 12th will be registered to vote, but will not be eligible to vote in the August Primary Election. If they miss the July 12th deadline, they will still be eligible to vote in the November 2nd General Election if they are registered prior to October 4, 2010.

Voters can register to vote or update their voter registration information by visiting any of the County Clerk's branch locations, or online at www.votejeffco.com.

"We are encouraging everybody who wants to vote in this election to make sure their registration information is up to date so they are eligible for both the Primary in August as well as the General in November," said Josh Liss, Jefferson County Deputy of Elections.
