

Jury Profiles

Rebecca E. Baker, C.B.O.

Jefferson County Building Safety

Ms. Baker, a Certified Building Official, is the Director of Building Safety for Jefferson County. Prior to her current position, she was the Building Official for the City of Englewood, and has been in a building official position for 22 years. Ms. Baker is an Honorary Member of the ICC, was recently appointed to the ICC Ad Hoc Committee on Administrative Provision in the I-Codes, and has served on the National Board of Directors of ICBO. In addition to published work, she has received the Presidents Award from the Denver Metro Building Owners and Managers Association, and the Colorado Component of the American Institute of Architects Presidents Award. Ms. Baker has served as President of the Colorado Chapter of the ICC, and currently participates on several statewide committees, including her local Building Code Board of Appeals.

Graham Billingsley, A.I.C.P.

American Planning Association

Mr. Billingsley is presently the Director of Land Use for Boulder County, Colorado. Prior to joining Boulder County, he served as Chief of Urban Design for the City of Dallas and Manager of the Zoning Transition Program, and also served as Principal of Billingsley Consultants in St. Louis, and SFDG Consultants in Cincinnati. He has been recognized with several planning and landscape architecture awards, including the National American Planning Association award in 1988 for the Dallas Zoning Code and Zoning Transition Program. Mr. Billingsley received a Bachelor of Urban Planning from the University of Cincinnati and a Master of Landscape Architecture from North Carolina State University. He currently serves as President-elect of the American Institute of Certified Planners.

Preston Gibson, A.I.C.P.

Jefferson Economic Council

Mr. Gibson is responsible for directing all activities of the Jefferson Economic Council (J.E.C.), whose mission is to strengthen the economic vitality of Jefferson County. He has an extensive background in public and private land planning, consulting, and real estate sales. Prior to joining the J.E.C., he was Planning and Engineering Manager for Jefferson County, where he directed all land development processing activities and regulation revisions. Mr. Gibson has served on Congressman Bob Beauprez's Small Business and Economic Development Advisory Committee, and is currently a member of the Red Rocks Community College Advisory Committee and the Tri-County Workforce Center Board of Directors. Mr. Gibson is a graduate of the University of Colorado, Denver, where he received a Master's Degree in Urban and Regional Planning and Community Development.

Amy Ito

Jefferson County Open Space

Ms. Ito is the Planning and Development Manager for Jefferson County Open Space. Prior to joining Open Space, Ms. Ito was Planning Administrator for Planning and Zoning, where she managed the Development Review and Special Projects Sections of the Planning Division. She was also Community Development Director for the Town of Frisco, where she was responsible for all aspects of the Community Development Department that incorporated the building and planning divisions. Ms. Ito received a Masters in Urban and Regional Planning from the University of Colorado at Denver, and a Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies from the University of California at Santa Cruz. She is also Awards Committee Chair for the Colorado Chapter of the American Planning Association.

Charles McKay

Private Developer

Mr. McKay, a partner in the Church Ranch Development Company, owns and develops the land that has been a part of his family for more than 140 years, and is very active in the community and local government. He is a constituent in many local and regional associations, councils, and committees, including Chairman of the Denver Boulder Corridor Marketing Coalition, President of the Jefferson Center Metropolitan District #1, Chairman of the Mandalay Community Center, Inc., and Board Member of the Front Range Community College and the Bronco Football Stadium Committee. Mr. McKay is or has been involved in the Future Jeffco Planning Committee, Community Plan consortiums, Rocky Flats planning, and the Northwest Metro Chamber of Commerce.

Jeanie Rossillon
Jefferson County Dept. of Highways & Transportation

Jeanie Rossillon, Assistant Director of the Jefferson County Division of Highways and Transportation, has over 25 years of experience in management, review, and design of development, transportation and storm drainage projects. Ms. Rossillon is a professional engineer and affiliated with the American Public Works Association, the American Water Rights Association, and the Colorado Association of Stormwater and Floodplain Management. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering from Colorado State University and a Master of Engineering degree from the University of Colorado.

Mark Tabor, A.S.L.A.
American Society of Landscape Architects

Mr. Tabor is a licensed Landscape Architect and currently a Project Manager for the Denver-based branch of the National Park Service. His experience as a landscape architect spans the country, and reflects a rich diversity of project types, including public and private sector involvement specializing in recreation planning. He served as Vice President of the Colorado Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects for 1997-1998, and served as President of the Chapter for 2005-2006. Mr. Tabor is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, and received a Master of Landscape Architecture degree from California State Polytechnic University.

Alan Tiefenbach
Jefferson County Planning and Zoning

Mr. Tiefenbach is a Planner in Development Review for Jefferson County, and reviews various development and land use proposals. Prior to his tenure with Jefferson County, Mr. Tiefenbach served as a Development Planner with the Cities of Greenwood Village and Manitou Springs, Colorado. Mr. Tiefenbach graduated summa cum laude from California Polytechnic University with a Bachelor of Science in City and Regional Planning, and has a particular interest in urban design and new urbanism.

Ken Urbanek
American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers (ASHRAE)

As a Mechanical Project Engineer at MKK Consulting Engineers in Greenwood Village, CO, Mr. Urbanek is involved in design of the mechanical and plumbing systems a variety of educational, commercial, institutional and residential projects. Mr. Urbanek is a LEED Accredited Professional through the United States Green Building Council. Mr. Urbanek is currently the Chapter Technology Transfer Chair for the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers where he sits on the Board of Governors. Mr. Urbanek received a Bachelor of Science in Architectural Engineering with a Building Mechanical System Emphasis from the University of Wyoming.

Linda M. Wagner, A.I.A.
American Institute of Architects

As Principal-in-Charge of Design at Bennett Wagner & Grody Architects PC, Ms. Wagner designs and manages projects including public-sector facility planning, interiors, and architectural design throughout the West. She boasts over 29 years of experience in the successful completion of projects ranging from complex additions and renovations to $50 million master plans, and holds numerous Awards and Recognitions from the American Institute of Architects. Ms. Wagner is a graduate magna cum laude of Syracuse University, holds a Master of Architecture from the University of Colorado, and is professionally licensed in 19 states.

Sarah Washburn
Jefferson County Planning and Zoning

Ms. Washburn, a Planner in Development Review for Jefferson County, is responsible for managing and processing citizen requests for various development and land use proposals. Prior to joining Jefferson County as a Planner, Sarah was a Landscape Architect in Denver, where she managed and designed public and private sector projects ranging from College and University site design to high-end private residential design. Ms. Washburn is a graduate of the University of California, Davis, where she received a Bachelor of Science in Landscape Architecture.