

JEFFERSON COUNTY, COLORADO

SHERIFF

200 JEFFERSON COUNTY PARKWAY • GOLDEN, CO 80401 • (303) 277-0211

LIQUOR LAWS:

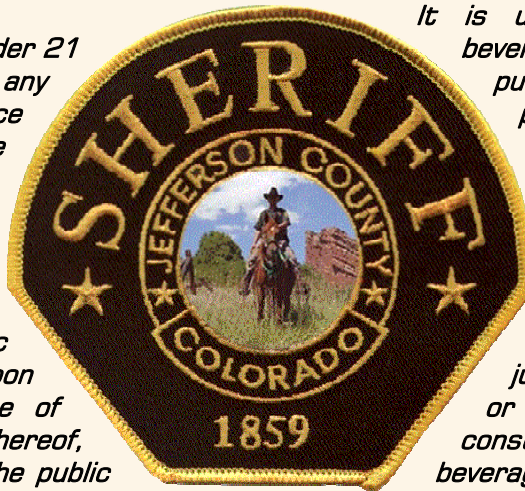

BE SAFE. BE SMART. BE RESPONSIBLE.

It is everyone’s responsibility to know and obey the laws concerning alcohol possession and consumption.

It is unlawful to sell, provide, or permit the sale of any alcoholic beverage to any person under 21, to a visibly intoxicated person, or to a known habitual drunkard.

It is unlawful for any person under 21 to obtain or attempt to obtain any alcoholic beverage in any place where alcoholic beverages are sold.

It is unlawful for any person under 21 to possess alcoholic beverages in any store, in any public place, including public streets or highways, or upon property owned by the state of Colorado or any subdivision thereof, or inside vehicles while upon the public streets or highways.

It is unlawful for a parent or guardian of any person under 21 to knowingly permit or compel that person under 21 to violate these laws.

It is unlawful to consume alcoholic beverages (except 3.2 beer) in any public place, except on licensed premises permitted to sell alcohol by the drink. Alcoholic beverages consumed on those premises must be purchased from that establishment.

If you live in an incorporated part of the county, your local jurisdiction may have other laws or policies related to possessing, consuming, or selling alcoholic beverages. It is your responsibility to know and obey the laws in your area.
