Mountain Precinct

Serving Jeffco's mountain communities

A True Neighbor

For years, the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office has been a true neighbor in the mountain areas of Jefferson County. We believe that a law enforcement presence in the mountains benefits the community in several ways, with faster response times, more personalized services, more convenience for citizens and stronger partnerships between the Sheriff's Office and the surrounding communities. The more closely we work together to solve problems and quality-of-life issues, the safer our neighborhoods will be.

Mountain Precinct

The Jefferson County Sheriff's Office mountain precinct, located at 4990 Hwy. 73 in Evergreen, makes Sheriff's Office services more accessible to Jefferson County's mountain area residents. The building is located next to the public library at the intersection of Highway 73 and Buffalo Park Road, south of downtown Evergreen. Business hours for the public are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, but deputies and precinct commanders use the building around-the-clock.

Jefferson County is geographically diverse, with busy urban areas just outside metro Denver, and remote and rugged terrain just a few miles west. Maintaining multiple precincts allows the Sheriff's Office to provide more customized and professional law enforcement services for residents of each area.
