Potential Indicators of Terrorist Activities Related to Rental Cars

What Should I Consider Suspicious?

- Reluctance to provide complete personal information when completing rental paperwork.
- Using cash for large transactions or a personal credit card in someone else's name.
- Providing multiple names on rental paperwork.
- Inability to recall the name used to rent a vehicle.
- Individuals surveilling the facility.
- Returned vehicles that contain
 - Unusual burn marks or odors.
 - Blueprints, photographs, or video of buildings and landmarks.
 - Extremist training manuals or literature.
 - Surveillance equipment.
 - Receipts for hazardous items.
 - Weapons.
 - Explosives.
 - Maps with sensitive locations marked.
- Efforts to quickly collect deposits for vehicles reported as stolen.
- Unusual questions regarding
 - A limousine's or other vehicle's dimensions, fuel capacity, or interior volume.
 - Local sites, including government, military, law enforcement, communications, and power facilities.
- Reports of abandoned rental vehicles, particularly those near
 - Military bases.
 - Government buildings.
 - Power plants.
 - Shopping malls.
 - Stadiums.
 - Schools.

It is important to remember that just because someone's speech, actions, beliefs, appearance, or way of life is different, it does not mean that he or she is suspicious.

What Should I Do?

- ✓ Report missing or stolen vehicles or license plates to law enforcement authorities.
- ✓ If something seems wrong, notify law enforcement authorities.

Do not jeopardize your safety or the safety of others.

Preventing terrorism is a community effort. By learning what to look for, you can make a positive contribution in the fight against terrorism. The partnership between the community and law enforcement is essential to the success of anti-terrorism efforts.

Some of the activities, taken individually, could be innocent and must be examined by law enforcement professionals in a larger context to determine whether there is a basis to investigate. The activities outlined on this handout are by no means all-inclusive but have been compiled from a review of terrorist events over several years.
