Significance
In order to designate a site, building, structure, or object as a Historic Landmark or a Historic District, it should be 50 years old and have integrity. If the property is less than 50 years old and has exceptional significance it may also be considered. Only one of the following criterions is required for eligibility on the Jefferson County Landmark Register.
Designation Criteria (check all that apply)  The Landmark Designation Committee will thoroughly read all checked criteria and determine the eligibility of a historic building or property.
the structure or building possesses special historic, architectural, cultural, political, social or archaeological significance as part of the heritage of Jefferson County; ☐ it represents distinctive characteristics of a type, period, type of construction, or use of materials;
it represents the work of a craftsman, master designer, architect or builder who is locally, regionally or nationally recognized; $\square$ it is associated with or is the location of a significant local, state or national event; it is associated with the lives of (a) person(s) who have made significant historical contributions on a local, state or national level;
it has yielded or may yield important archaeological, environmental or geographical information that enriches our understanding of history in Jefferson County;
it is significant as the only or one of a few remaining example(s) of an architectural style or use, or it represents historical or cultural life style of the past (i.e., stage coach stop and/or buildings, or one-room rural school house);
it has a unique location, natural setting or physical characteristics that establish it as a familiar or recognizable visual feature to the area;
it is associated with an antiquated use resulting from technological or social change, i.e., mining, bridges, wagon or stage coach roads, railway beds, hitching posts, etc.); it is a monument, birthplace, cemetery or grave of a historic person or people representing a particular time or event in our history or culture; and it has already been designated on the National Register of Historic Places or the State Register of Historic Properties.
