

State Historical Fund Grants For Historic Preservation

The State of Colorado provides grant funding from the State Historical Fund for qualifying historic preservation projects. This fund receives its revenue from a tax on gambling in Central City, Blackhawk, and Cripple Creek.

Applications

The Jefferson County Historical Commission is available to review grant applications and assist applicants for projects in unincorporated Jefferson County. To allow time to provide assistance, applicants should contact the Jefferson County Historical Commission at least one month prior to the state's application deadline.

The State Application deadlines are usually April 1 and October 1 each year.

How to Apply

If you are considering applying to the State Historical Fund for a grant and the project is located in unincorporated Jefferson County, and you would like assistance with your application, please contact the Jefferson County Historical Commission at the address below:
