

Inclusion of resources on this list does not denote endorsement of these resources by Jefferson County Public Health. The resources included here have been determined to meet a general standard for credibility/validity as appropriate substance abuse prevention and/or treatment resources in that they were recommended by organizations (or their representatives) which have accountability to use evidence-based approaches to address substance prevention/use/abuse needs. This list is updated regularly. To make comments or recommend additional resources, email public_health_info@jeffco.us. Staff will verify the resources suggested and include those that meet the general standard for inclusion.

Training Resources for Providers

Resources and Contact information	Population Served	Description
Approach to Screening Brief Intervention and Referral to Treatment program (SBIRT) (303) 369-0039 http://1.usa.gov/1MHINFM	Providers, various	SBIRT, Screening Brief Intervention and Referral to Treatment program, as indicated by the title, is a resource for providers that supports screening, intervention and referral for individuals who have not yet reached the stage of abusing substances. Providers and provider organizations can be trained in SBIRT which targets non-dependent drug users. A number of healthcare and behavioral healthcare organizations offer SBIRT throughout the state.
Behavioral Health Services Counselor Training Center (303) 436-3570 http://bit.ly/1VbaZQO	Counselors and educators	The Training Center offers many classes to meet specific requirements for both Colorado and national counselor certifications, as well as continuing education for professional development. To meet competencies set by the Office of Behavioral Health, all required classes seek to enhance the ability of the counselor to offer treatment services in a manner that respects gender, race and ethnicity, sexual orientation, cultural, familial, systemic and socioeconomic diversity.
Behavioral Health & Wellness Program - University of Colorado - School of Medicine (303)724-6327 www.bhwellness.org/services/training	health and behavioral health care professionals	The BHWP offers multiple evidence-based training curricula and workshops to increase health and wellness across the lifespan. Trainings are also available for community agencies, healthcare facilities, and government agencies on a variety of health, behavioral health, wellness and prevention/intervention strategies. BHWP offers certification as a Tobacco Treatment Specialist. Their website also offers fact sheets, videos and toolkits for providers.
Center for Public Health Practice (303)-724-5846 www.publichealthpractice.org/	Public Health workforce	The Center for Public Health Practice creates and fosters practitioner excellence to improve public health by hosting workforce training and development and through a variety of training formats. These resources are primarily intended for those in the field of Public Health.
Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment-Retail Marijuana Education Program http://1.usa.gov/1M0L0ub	State and local health agencies	This is a workshop to train state and local public health employees about marijuana.

Colorado State Attorney Marijuana Enforcement and Information (720)508-6000 http://bit.ly/1E4Bu2C	Agencies, law enforcement, Colorado residents	The Marijuana team aims to increase the expertise and knowledge among prosecutors and law enforcement officials regarding the legal and regulatory issues surrounding marijuana, post legalization. This unit informs and trains others on the laws and industry of medical and retail marijuana and serve as an on-going resource to law enforcement, government officials, and other states. The Introduction to Marijuana for Law Enforcement class introduces scenarios and clarification around marijuana laws.
Jefferson County Public Health (303)271-5000 http://jeffco.us/public-health/	All	The Jefferson County Public Health website provides information about Tobacco Prevention, Marijuana and Public Health. The Tobacco Prevention Initiative offers provider training for best practice approaches to address tobacco use.
National Institute for Change www.nichange.com	All	The NIC has programs aimed at therapeutically helping adults and adolescents rehabilitate during mandatory court-ordered treatment for a variety of offenses. Their programs include anger management, domestic violence, life skills, and substance abuse monitoring. There is a "marijuana abstinence group" for adolescents only and a one-day class on marijuana abstinence, open to all ages.
School resource officers www.colorado.gov/pacific/cssrc	School resource officers	The Colorado Department of Public Safety provides training to school resource officers in matters of handling mental health as well as providing them with information about the effects of marijuana on young minds.