What Is A Smart Snack?

Snacks give kids nutrition and energy between meals.

Snacks are not treats like cookies or candy.

Treats are only given once in a while, where as snacks are given everyday.

Snacks should include 2 or 3 food groups (peach slices, yogurt, cold cereal).

Snacks have extra nutrients that may be missed during meals.

Think of snacks as "mini-meals".

Super Snack Suggestions

Homemade trail mix*- whole grain cereal, dry fruit, nuts String cheese, whole wheat crackers, fruit Fruit smoothies with milk, yogurt and fruit

Corn tortillas with melted cheese and diced tomato

Steamed veggies (cooled) with dip (bean dip, hummus, low fat salad dressing) Peanut butter on apples

Tortilla pinwheels- deli ham, pineapples, shredded cheese

*Do not offer nuts, seeds or dry fruit to children under 3 years of age.
